

Jury Service Extension

Not applicable to temporary Employees

Subject to the terms and conditions of this policy we will pay £250 per day for the first ten days of service and £50 per day thereafter in the event of a named Insured Person having to attend any court of law for the purpose of carrying out jury service. Provided always that the compensation shall not be payable in circumstances where the Insured Person has received notification prior to the inception of this policy of the requirement to carry out jury service.